

The images of flowers to order presented reflect a particular time and season. Although we will endeavour to create arrangements that closely resemble your selection, please allow for changes in availability and seasons. In such cases, we will substitute flowers with similar blooms to best reflect the style and description of the arrangement displayed. If your requirements are quite specific, you may prefer to contact us directly and place your order via telephone on +64 9 377 1333.
